

Painkillers, The "Goodbye"

Visit "Goodbye" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm dead inside but still alive
My soul it bleeds internally
Thirsting for a sip of your smile
A year ago like yesterday
Lord you know how hard I prayed
To make you stay here for awhile

*Life was better with you here
I know it will take some time to fully heal
Before i say Goodbye

Unwanted change is moving on
Still holding on to everything
Just to be your thoughts for awhile
A year ago like yesterday
Lord you know I'd give up anything
Just to have you here once again

Even when I lied you were mine
Even when you died you were mine
