I saw you there
With your pretty blondish hair
Eating your breakfast burrito
You seemed so neat-o
So we took the bus down to the pier
Down on the sand
By the metal detector man
We looked across the bay
As the dolphins swam away
We held hands, and just imagined
But with tears in my eyes
You had to say goodbye
You had to go you couldn't tell me why
You said something about you moving to Alaska

I'm gonna miss you
I'm gonna miss you so much
Those hot summer nights won't last forever
I'm gonna miss you
I'm gonna miss you so much
Those hot summer nights won't last forever

I know you're gone and you can't come home
I'm so alone (so alone)
But I'll never forget about you

Dear Elizabeth,
I hope you're doing well
I think it's so great that you're monitoring glacier patterns
in some remote part of Alaska where no one can get a hold of you
--I thought I'd try anyway

I understand so I bought a krugerrand
Oh well you're near my heart
We'll never be apart
And now the heavens smile upon us
With tears in my eyes
You had to say goodbye
You had to go and couldn't tell me why

You said something about you living on an iceberg

I'm gonna miss you
I'm gonna miss you so much
Those hot summer nights won't last forever
I'm gonna miss you
I'm gonna miss you so much
Those hot summer nights won't last forever

I know your gone and you can't come home
I'm so alone (so alone)
But I'll never forget about you

Dear Elizabeth,
Again I hope you're doing really good
I haven't heard from you yet
But anyway the weirdest thing
I met your identical twin sister Liz the other night at a party
Wow she looks just like you
It's so trippy
Anyway she said you missed me but not to try to get a hold of you
'cause you're real busy
And the weirdest thing is I guess shes joining you on the expedition...
Wow that's totally cool!

I'm gonna miss you
I'm gonna miss you so much
Those hot summer nights won't last forever
I'm gonna miss you
I'm gonna miss you so much
Those hot summer nights won't last forever

Dear Elizabeth and Liz,
I hope you're doing well
Anyway I was at the mall and I met your identical cousin Beth
I didn't even know they had identical cousins
And it made me miss you even more

Hello
Uhh, hello is this Elizabeth?
Yes it is
Elizabeth, it's me, Roger! From the beach!
Oh did I say Elizabeth? I meant, umm, it's Francine.
Oh, Francine.
Yeah I'm watching their house we'll they're gone over in Europe.

Europe? I thought they were in Alaska?
Oh did I say Alas- I said- I meant Alaska.
Yeah they're in Alaska. Well whatever, Europe, Alaska, it's the same...
Umm hmm.. Well anyway they're gonna be changing this phone number so you probably shouldn't call here anymore okay?
Okay. Bye.
