I'm not going to fight this anymore, it's not worth it.
my heart can't take the heartbreak, i set myself up.
i am but a shell of the man i was supposed to be.
hollow, cold and dead on the inside.
human smoke, like the dust, i've been collecting all these years.
my hearts still beating, but i've stopped breathing.
my heart won't stop. not tonight.
no rest, no rest, no rest for the weary, i'll carry on, this shell, this hollow frame, this broken man.
my heart won't stop, i'll find my way, i'll carry on.
i'll find my way tonight.
i'll carry on.
i'll find my way.
my heart, my heart won't stop tonight.
not tonight.
i'll find my way.
