Oh captain! my captain!
The walls are closing in.
the roof is caving in.
We're not goign to make it out this time.
We'll die in the trenches and be buried in shallow graves.
We're not going to get out this time.
We're all dead.
Living sacrifices for a much greater cause.
Oh angels will cry for us tonight.
Nothing but lost souls trapped on an endless battlefield.
Kill or be killed.
Live or die.
It won't matter in the end.
This day will go down in infamy.
This is our moment.
Let's seize the day.
Guns up, guns blazing.
We won't make it through the night.
