Time, and answers for people's cries
And I loved the way that you say my name
Im chasing the path with nothing but the pieces left of your ghost to find you
Are You Happy Baby? (happy baby)
These days, I should have known are the Stories Of Our Lives
(stories of out lives)

Someday Maybe We'll Meet Again
Someday Maybe We'll Meet Again

Time, the waiting's the hardest part
And knowing when you're alone again
Just give me the chance to begin
The pieces left of your heart should come home.
Even Though You Hate It. (though you hate it)
These days, I should have known are the Stories Of Our Lives
(stories of out lives)

Someday Maybe Well Meet Again
Someday Maybe Well Meet Again

oo and memories of you keep me in two
So thanks for nothing, see you around
'Cause I loved the way you say my name

Complicated now as it has always been (x2)
The pieces left of your ghost should come home
Are You Happy Baby? (happy baby)
These days, I should have known are the Stories Of Our Lives
(stories of our lives)

Someday Maybe Well Meet Again
Someday Maybe Well meet Again
But thanks for the good times (thanks for the good times) (x4)
