"Versus"

These waters bleed of the faith insured and Im chasing bottles stuck on the shore.

Reading people's wishes like they were my own
This catatonic love leaves me breathless sometimes

Girl, I wanna Hold On
I never should have let go of you and I say oh oh, oh oh
lets keep this thing alive
Are You Satisfied?

As to a question, are we secured?
'Cause now Im not so sure we ever were
How could you do what you did?
Now don't be shy, choke on every word until we find a reply
And cold, is what you made it
Its what you sold
I bought it last year, its getting old
How could you do all the things you did?
I should have told you that
Girl, I wanna Hold On
I never should have Let Go Of You
And I said oh oh, oh oh
lets keep this thing alive
Are You Satisfied?

You make me younger (you make me, you make me)
You make me younger (you make me younger)
I swore my days were numbered (swore my days were numbered)
You make me younger (you make me young)
You make me younger (you make me younger)
I swore my days were numbered (swore my days were numbered)

And Cold, is what you made it
Its what you sold
I bought it last year, its getting old.
How could you do all the things you did?
I should have told you, told you

I wanna hold on
You're showing me a new point of view
And I said oh oh, oh oh
lets keep this thing alive
Are you Satisfied?
