I need to know
You're there
I need to know
You care

All we had got strangely lost
But then you took a kiss from my lips again
We should stop
But we're heathens

I said "chill"
But souls too close can't escape
The sin of takin' what don't belong
To them
They need healin'

What if
We start over
Right now
Come back together and break down
Emotions crying
Ooh child
I'm yours now

I don't know how
You stop a wreck in the streets
They move too fast
And the driver's asleep
I just wish
We could find peace

We always hit first base
And then we regret
That we don't know each other yet
Then we say
That we're leaving

What if
We start over
Right now
Come back together

And break down
Emotions crying
Ooh child, I'm yours now

What if
We start over
Right now
Come back together
And break down
Emotions crying
Ooh child, I'm yours now

I need to know
You're there
I need to know
You care
I need to know
You're there

What if
We start over
Right now
Come back together
And break down
Emotions crying

What if
We start
Over
Right now

What if
We start
Right now

Now
