The weight of the world is about to fucking become, lighter by the hour, as I waste these motherfuckers I don't need a scapegoat no fucking alibi, I had to murder them, every last one of them they can putrify in my piss, I take no shit I fucking eat they were born to die I was born to pulverize any time any place right fucking here right fucking now I'll beat it through your thick skull I'll beat you to a fucking pulp you want a fucking war you got a fucking war the only way around me is to go directly through me suffering the consequence of your fucking ignorance you want to fucking know what drives my impulses to deliver a lethal blow to this fucking world... ignorance fuck humanity it's fucking mind-blowing all you motherfuckers are my enemy... Enemy the weight of the world is about to fucking become lighter by the hour as I waste these motherfuckers they can putrify in my piss I take to pulverize zero intelligence your control pumping through my veins
