

Waco Jesus

"Walkin' Shoes"

Visit "Walkin' Shoes" on MotoLyrics.com

If you keep walking in circles, you're gonna fall through the floor
And this old hardwood, can't stand much more
I can't make you stay, and I won't make you go
Are those the same walking shoes, you've worn before

Chorus:

Oh your walking shoes, they're looking pretty worn
But don't worry darlin, I'll buy you some more
I can see your toes, and there's a hole in your soul
Oh your walking shoes, they're looking worn

I remember the day, that you brought 'em home
How you pranced around like a kid, when you put 'em on
And to this day, I can't count the times
I've seen you and your walkin' shoes, saying goodbye

Repeat Chorus

I won't be the hero, I won't be the goat
I won't tell you yes, and darlin' I won't tell you no
I'll just sit on the front porch, and drink my lemonade
Waitin' for you to make up your mind again

Repeat Chorus

Visit Waco Jesus page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.