Nowhere to go.
All night to get there.
Another nice try with Mr. Wrong.
Late night tv on my horizon.
National Anthem and I'm barely hangin on.
Just a typical Saturday night.
Feeling like the rest of my life.
There was nothing New Under the Moon.
Same old dance, same old tune.
Just wishes on stars that never came true.
Just one more night to get through.
But there was nothing New Under the Moon, 'til you.
Hey what a change.
Hey what a concept.
Here's a true heart wanting mine.
News Flash! Who'd ever thought you could
Have the same feeling at the very same time?
Look at what your love's doing to me.
I can't believe I used to believe
That there was nothing New Under the Moon.
Same old dance, same old tune.
Just wishes on stars that never came true.
Just one more night to get through.
There was nothing New Under the Moon, 'til you.
Nothin' New Under the Moon
Same old dance, same old tune.
Just wishes on stars that never came true.
Just one more night to get through.
There was nothing New Under the Moon, 'til you.
Nothin' New Under the Moon, til you.
There was nothing New Under the Moon, 'til you.
Nothin' New, 'til you.
There was nothing New Under the Moon, 'til you.
