[Verse One: Rise] Tired of waitin', chasin', with the desire adjacent Steady the race Can't believe the time that I'm makin' Creatin' A years worth of work in just weeks Slow and steady only wins the race when speed sleeps Wake up Stressin' these stars Stressin' these cars While our Earth is goin' down, people checkin' out Mars I'm out with 'em Class, I was always out skippin' And riffin' And my professors get out written Tootin' my horn You look fake You could be drawn For all I know Think of your song before you perform I ain't wrong We don't talk about the dope shit we do They get mad because my arrogance is closer to true Y'all evolve around me The Earth is one of my moons I'm self centered My face is all over my room I like Rise You'll feel like, Rise is real nice, watch ?Move the mic loud enough to announce that clocks? [Ria] I just keep on fallin' Get away So I submerg my feet down to the ground To get that hard sound of feet and boots It echos right away What if I want to jump out of my body? And it hurts What if I want to jump the houses?
Jump Just to check if the boots upstarts jumping What if I just want to go? Jump, jump jump Again and again [Verse Two: Rise] See I make little piece with your hand in these hearts Feel like my mind frame when my battery charge Remember me? Did you see the happy me or you see me hate? I ain't a team player, went to work with a mean face Why? Decision is fine, just cause the plan is My just cause for rap is just cause I can Just give it your all Some people are so greedy they'll take it So jump Not to end it Show 'em you can make it Rippin' the mic Nice, cause I listen to life This is my life The right just to get a new height Heavy in the clouds Laid on the ground from stepped you planted Clap Cause I grew and now I dribble the planet Life is shorter than I was in elementary school But long enough to make the maddest group, tentative too Drown dry land Rise I tread air Gravity moves nothin' When I toll it we weren't there But wait when I get a day stronger I feel tired The words on my shoulders Everybody's on the Rise
