I walked out tonight on the woman I love
We had us a fight and I said I've had enough I slammed the door and headed for a place I used to go
For a taste of freedom with some friends I used to know

They had that jukebox rocking, the music turned up loud
And I thought I'd fit right back in with my old party crowd
But now I can't remember what I came here to find 'Cause I've been here all night just one question on my mind

Are we having fun yet? Right now it's hard to tell My head don't feel that good and this heartache hurts
like hell
I think I might have made a big mistake if this is good as good times get I'm down to my last dime, it's closing time, are we having fun yet?

I'll bet she's watching TV now, in my favorite chair While I ride this barstool wishing I was there And in my wildest dreams this ain't how it's supposed to be Sitting here and missing her and asking my old friends

Are we having fun yet? Right now it's hard to tell
My head don't feel that good and this heartache hurts
like hell
I think I might have made a big mistake if this is good
as good times get
I'm down to my last dime, it's closing time, are we
having fun yet?

Are we having fun yet? Right now it's hard to tell
My head don't feel that good and this heartache hurts
like hell
I think I might have made a big mistake if this is good
as good times get

I'm down to my last dime, it's closing time, are we
having fun yet?
