You call me up and say your tears are fallin'
You know I'd love to comfort you
Guess we always had alot in common
You know, I'm lonesome, too
You know, I'm lonesome, too

If pouring rain and thunder shakes your window
Trouble comes knockin' out of the blue
It don't matter which way that old wind blows
Cause, I'm lonesome, too
I'm lonesome, too

If there's something in your heart, you can't get over
I'll be the ladder you can use
Climb on up and cry here, on my shoulder
You know I'm lonesome too

There's a well upon that hill, that's good for wishin'
And time and time again, I wish for you
But, my heart's broke and all my money's missin'
You know, I'm lonesome, too
You know, I'm lonesome, too
