She knows when I've been drinking
With just a quick look in my eyes
The same way that she can tell
When I've told a little lie
Though the thought would never cross her mind
To act the way I do sometimes
She rarely has an angry word to say
Cause she knows me but she loves me anyway

She knows when I get angry I can be a little wild
And sometimes when I don't get my way
I can act just like a child
Heaven knows I don't understand
When she see's how I really am
How she can over look enough to stay
Cause she knows me but she loves me anyway

CHORUS

She must see something buried deep inside that I don't see
She just keeps on waiting for the man she knows I try so hard to be
Though I'm no angel the good Lord knows I'm thankful
To witness this small miracle each day
She knows me but she loves me anyway

She knows me but she loves me anyway
Though I'm no angel the good Lord knows I'm thankful
To witness this small miracle each day
She knows me but she loves me anyway
