I see what you've done
I'll take all the blame
To be what you've come
And face the mistake
I'll twist all over
And fake what did
I'll take what you give
And turn it to face

I have waited so long to see you my god
And now you don't exist
Feeling have been crippled 'cause of you my god
And now you don't exist

You claimed your own son
Would die here for you
To wake the sleeping
Who died to step through
Eternal children
Blindly stray with you
Exploited offspring
Blindly killed by you

To me, my god

I've waited so long to see, I'm alive
My feelings have crippled me, I'm alive
