Where do we go now
I don't know
Wait 'til it's over
Fading fast

And it's hard to know what you're thinking
When you hide inside your head
You're still promising perfection (perfection)

Waiting to learn
Waiting to learn
Waiting to learn
Waiting to learn

And it's hard to break a habit
(You must love again)
Who do you love now
And it's hard to break a habit
(You must love again)
Who do you love now
Who do you love now
Who do you love now

I move through the cold air
Cuts through me
I try to remember what I believe
You're the cause of my confusion
Closing down the way I feel
How can I see so clearly (so clearly)

Trying to breathe
Trying to breathe
Trying to breathe
Trying to breathe

And it's hard to break a habit
(You must love again)
Who do you love now
And it's hard to break a habit
(You must love again)
Who do you love now

Who do you love now
Who do you love now

Who do you love
Who do you love
Who do you love
Who do you love
Who do you love
Who do you love

And it's hard to break a habit
(You must love again)
Who do you love now
And it's hard to break a habit
(You must love again)
Who do you love now
And it's hard to break a habit
(You must love again)
Who do you love now
And it's hard to break a habit
(You must love again)
Who do you love now
Who do you love
Who do you love
Who do you love
Who do you love now
Who do you love
Who do you love
Who do you love
Who do you love now
