If the chute doesn't open
If this plan doesn't work
Going down, down, down, down, down
Kinda great to know as I take that step
This is my one last chance

And everything shatters
Everything's falling apart
I'm hanging in tatters
Barely a beat in my heart
And nothing else matters
No

If the man is the sum
Of all that he's done
Then I'm nothing much today
And if it's true what they say
And you are what you eat

Then I'm nothing much today

And everything shatters
Everything's falling apart
I'm hanging in tatters
Barely a beat in my heart
And nothing else matters
No

Nothing else matters
Nothing else
Nothing else matters
No

Going down, down, down
Going down, down, down
Going down, down, down
Down, down, down, down
Down
Going down, down, down
Going down, down, down
