"Life As A Bullet"

My mind has been shut down

My friends have been let down

What is the reason

There's millions of reasons

Single me out

Tear off my front

Make me expose what I conceal

Life is a bullet

The bloodstains prove it

It's tearing through you and me

Not caring about you or me

Now I could explain everything

You cursed the fire

Now fuck the flame

What is the reason

There's millions of reasons

Blindfold me now

Spin me around

Picking me up

When I fall down

Today I feel blue

My head is in the clouds

Separate me

My soul from my body

Feeling so lonely

I'm not the only one

Separate me

My soul from my body

I'm in love with too many things

And I hate every thing
