Thinkin' 'bout you tonight, in a 3-D hotel room in Rome Chain smoking American cigarettes, and keeping my ears to the phone
Through the blinds to the street my mind wanders
To the nights when I had you alone Reality becomes science fiction, and my heart's in the warzone
If you won't free me from riding in this rodeo
Juliet loves tonight her vicious Romeo For your love, I'd give you anything, the stars and the moon in the sky above Existing for you alone and the moments we steal from each other
A millionaire I'll become, and cry out my name as your lover
I was travelling light as I checked into this heartbreak chateau
But there's no place for me in the sun, that doesn't cast a shadow
Time will free me from riding in this rodeo
Juliet loves tonight her vicious Romeo
For your love, I'd give you anything (for your love)
The stars and the moon in the sky above (for your love) You say I'm your world, but you are my universe (for your love)
You say that you want me, but you get love's curse (Solo)
I was travelling light when I checked into this heartbreak chateau
And there's no place for me in the sun, that doesn't cast a shadow
For your love, I'd give you anything (for your love)
The moon and the stars in the sky above (for your love)
You say I'm your world, but baby you are my universe (for your love)
You say that you want me, but all you get's love's curse
- ow!
(For your love) I gave you anything (for your love) I gave you anything (For your love) You shoot off my back (for your love) a million bucks
(For your love) 'Cos I want you (for your love) tonight

(For your love) I want you (for your love) tonight
(For your love) I want you (for your love) tonight
(For your love) I want you tonight!
