

Waite John "Love Collision"

Visit "Love Collision" on MotoLyrics.com

Ain't it beautiful, don't it make you feel complete
It comes into your life, then sweeps you right off your feet Time stands still for two lovers, and it's intangible, but it hits like steel
It stops me in my tracks, makes my private world unsealed
I crashed car, in communication failsafe
We can share this vision, in fact we've got no choice
Into the arena of love, speaking with one voice
Ain't it something else, like skydiving into Shangri-la
And the clearest cool is the zeal-blue heaven
And you can't quite put your finger on it And you could be anywhere, anytime, anyplace, in your lover's arms
Could be paradise, or walkin' on thin ice
We can share this vision, we're on some one-way street Exchanging cigarettes and glances, we both feel the heat
It's a love collision, love collision, and there's no decision
It's a love collision
If I close my eyes, visualizing you and I somewhere in this city
And moments of desire, the steady the silent gaze of lovers transfixed
We could share this vision, in fact we've got no choice
Into the arena of love, speaking with one voice
It's a love collision, love collision, and there's no
decision
It's a love collision
Love collision (repeats out)

Visit Waite John page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.