They say we look fake,
But I don't care at all well people may think we may rise to fall
sad but true
it might be you, it's not like you

Saturday, you come my way
And I dont want you to go home I take you out, thats what you're all about its better than sitting on the phone

Then she says to me
Everything will be okay
She's just another girl for the summer
She's just another girl for the summer
She's just another girl for the summer
She's just another girl for the summer

We're close behind,
She's lookin fine
I can't get her off my mind
Her mother said,
She wants me dead
it keeps getting better everyday

Then she says to me
And Everything will be okay
She's just another girl for the summer
She's just another girl for the summer
She's just another girl for the summer

Sitting in my room where i can think Chillin in my room with the SMC Girlfriend calls to break things off Her moms round one is not my fault

Sad but true, dont accuse its for you

At nights u come to blame, Shatering my self-esteem

You were so mean but whatever ever I'm not feeling estranged from the feelings you claimed I just wanna get them off my chest get out of my face

Why can't it be just how things were when we began when days go by we manifest and do the best that we can I'm much obliged and when it meets your eyes
We discredit all the lies

Then she says to me
Then she says to me
Yeah yeah

They say we look fake,
but i don't care at all
people may think
we may rise to fall
sad but true
it might be you , it's not like you

She's Just Another Girl for the summer
She's Just Another Girl for the summer
She's Just Another Girl for the summer
She's Just Another Girl for the summer
She's Just Another Girl for the summer
She's Just Another Girl for the summer
She's Just Another Girl for the summer
Just Another
