dying here, on the phone, no one's talking in my head, i can hear, angels laughing but she won't, ever say, what she's thinking sunday past, unimpressed, my good suit wasted he knows, she knows, everyone but me knows o please, help me, won't somebody tell me how long will i be waiting soaking wet in the rain i'll just, stand here, quietly complaining hard to breathe, memories, casting shadows missing words, little clues, over-thinking what do i, why do i, no one tells me in my head, i still hear, angels laughing

how long will i be waiting
i'll just, stand here, quietly complaining

she's inside, warm and dry, and im all wet down and low, gettin' old, not dead yet but i just can't ?give up yet? i just want to show this world how long...should i keep waiting pulling myself down the drain

soaking wet in the rain
i'll just stand here quietly complaining [x3]
