You danced with me in the moonlight
And I found my theme, roses bloom you inspired me
And the break of day fell upon me
And the light outshine
And you broke the spell that had kept me from loving you

I came to you for answers
I left confused

You play charades and the stars bow down
And I saw your face; I lose my self on a Saturday
It had been so long, so I question, I question everything It's no surprise the time was right and you saw it in my eyes

I came to you for answers
And you moved me and you promised you would let go
Now I need you and I want you to know
I am spinning
Out of control to be with you
I know that, who you are...

I came to you for answers
And you moved me and you promised you would let go
Now I need you and I want you to know

I'm stepping out today (I came to you for answers)
Pushed all the demons away (I left confused) I'm stepping out today (and you moved me and you promised you would let go) Pushed all the demons away (now I need you and I want you to know)
I'll come through
