Oh, to live is pain,
to die is release,
the words inside our minds, are the words you'd take seriously

Oh, by the time you read this letter, I've already gone,
left you with the thoughts of yesterday, and I can't go on

They took you away in smoke
(I watched you fade away)
For a while my days were gray, but now I'm on my own

I feel my intentions, fall away again,
hidden inside my mind,
where I usually reside

Oh, as I close my eyes, this time for the last time, ah, but I'll think of you, as I close my eyes

(I watched you fade away)
For a while my days were gray,
but now I'm on my own

I will run to you,
you are in my mind,
you are in my dreams,
(where) I will run into your arms
