The woman I love, she's slowly drivin' me insane
The woman I love, she's slowly drivin' me insane She's on her way to the grave, cause she smokes that crack cocaine

She gets up early every mornin', man that little girl she's dope-house bound - oh yeah
She gets up early every mornin', man that little girl she's dope-house bound And when I need my baby, that little girl she can't be found

(oh play the blues... oh yeah...)

She took all of my money, and she pawned my watch and diamond ring
She took all of my money y'all, and she pawned my watch and ring
She would sell her soul for a dollar, like a dog mean a doggone thing

I love my baby, but she just don't let that crack cocaine
alone
Crazy about my woman, she won't leave crack cocaine
alone
She's on her way to the grave, she's breakin' up my happy home

Son of a gun!
