All hands on deck, don't abandon the ship
You'll never know what it could have been
All hands on deck, my ship is sinking
Don't let me go, don't let me drown

A step to the right to your own rhythm
And what comes next is up to you
And I need a miracle to save me from this
And I need the angels to all pray for me
I can't believe you

All hands on deck, don't abandon the ship
You'll never know what it could have been
All hands on deck, my ship is sinking
Don't let me go, don't let me drown

Another day, another worry, breaks right through
And indecision bleeds me dry
And she's painting pictures, I'm not making for her
And she's got a vision without me in mind
I can't believe you

All hands on deck, don't abandon the ship
You'll never know what it could have been
All hands on deck, my ship is sinking
Don't let me go, don't let me drown

All hands on deck, don't abandon the ship
You'll never know what it could have been
All hands on deck, my ship is sinking
Don't let me go, don't let me drown

The long walks on moon light beach
The promises you could not keep
They're so contagious, you're so contagious

For all the world we did not see
And all the smiles you gave to me
They're so contagious, so very fake

All hands on deck, don't abandon the ship
You'll never know what it could have been

All hands on deck, my ship is sinking
Don't let me go, don't let me drown

And goodbye to you, goodbye to you, you
And goodbye to you, goodbye to you, you
