You made the call
I step outside, cross that line
And I lose control
cause I've been waiting
It's beautiful to let go don't you know
Your everything I try to be
The rise and fall to respond to the call
I got butterflies

Your all I have
So break me down
Your all I am
And nothing else matters

This is a long shot
It's all I have
I'm ready to step it up
And all I need is your hand
And this is a long shot
It's who I am
I'm ready to take off
All I need is a plan

I'm calling out
Take me, make me
I'm finding out
That You are my reason
It's beautiful to let go don't you know
Your everything I try to be
The rise and fall to respond to the call
I sing a new song

You're all I have
So break me down
You're all I am
But nothing else matters
You're all I have
So break me down
You're all I am
And nothing else matters

This is a long shot
It's all I have
I'm ready to step it up
And all I need is your hand
This is a long shot
It's who I am
I'm ready to take off
And all I need is a plan

You're all I have x3
Yeah

You're the plan
Yeah

This is a long shot
It's all I have
I'm ready to step it up
And all I need is your hand
It's who I am
I'm ready to take off
All I need is a plan

This is a long shot
This is the longest shot
I'm barely moving
You keep me breathing
This is a long shot
Cause I'm barely moving
You keep me breathing

This is a long shot
It's all I have
Im ready to step it up
This is a long shot
It's who I am
Im ready to take off
All I need is a plan
