I remembered almost everything you said
But i forgot to write it down
Getting lost is such an easy thing to do
So if you can hear me then there's one thing i will ask of you

Think of me when you fall asleep
Can promise you will never be lonely
If we can agree that we will make it through eventually
I promise you will never be lonely

There's a mark like mine that sits on your left hand
Never had a match before
I can only see it when you wave goodbye
So you should only use your left hand when holding on

Think of me when you fall asleep
Can promise you will never be lonely
If we can agree that we will make it through eventually
I promise you will never be lonely
