Now baby needs diamond sky
Caviar and moonlight wine
She hasn't yet made up her mind
If she'll take me
I see my love stoned and deep
Rap my future at your feet
For a simple life where love will sleep
You can take me

Cuz everday gets stronger
And everyday grows and grows
And I can't wait much longer

Round and round in dreams I go
Set me free or tie the bow
Up or down let me know
But don't ignore me

Cuz everday gets stronger
And everyday grows and grows
And I can't wait much longer
Everday gets stronger
And everyday grows and grows
And I can't wait much longer

Now listen, I get my coat and catch a train
And make my way to New Orlean
Find seven houses soaked in gin
To console me
Cuz everday gets stronger
And everyday grows and grows
And I can't wait much longer
Everday gets stronger
And everyday grows and grows
And I can't wait much longer
Everday gets stronger
And everyday grows and grows
And I can't wait much longer
