Are you still here
Are you still haunting me
Are you still wanting me to want you
Although you have gone

Are you still here
I dont know what to do for this
I thought I traded you for Mr. Blues
But you keep hangin on

I thought you had gone for good
I thought I could make it
Even though I thought I could
I cant take it

Youre like a chain, my love
And I cant seem to break it
Youre like a chain, my love
And I cant seem to break it

Yes, youre still here
How can you be here when youre there
I feel your presence everywhere
Although you have gone
You keep hangin on
Although you have gone
