Shiver in your presence, your unique hurtful essence

Lying here, im all alone

Oh I wish you could have known

La la la la la

La la la la la

Before I leave im a feather

I float down from the clouds

Im your angel standing by

Im the tissue when you cry

But you messed with me, my delicate life

Felt like a stab from your knife

If I could have shown you

I would have known you

But you decided to walk alone â€¦ â€¦ â€¦

I hope you remember me every time you see a feather,

Just to remember â€¦I got the better

I'm little and I'm weak but there's something about me

The words that I speak to help you finally see

I live alone now, the equals to your sum

But a stronger greater girl is what I've become

Before I leave im a feather

I float down from the clouds
Im your angel standing by
Im the tissue when you cry
But you messed with me, my delicate life
Felt like a stab from your knife
If I could have shown you
I would have known you
But you decided to walk alone â€¦ â€¦ â€¦
I hope you remember me every time you see a feather,
Just to remember â€¦I got the better
And I will float down and rebound
And I will lift up and pick up
And I will show you and I will know you
But you won't get to me I will be moved on and so I tell you I'm already gone
Before I leave im a feather
I float down from the clouds
Im your angel standing by
Im the tissue when you cry
But you messed with me, my delicate life
Felt like a stab from your knife
If I could have shown you
I would have known you
But you decided to walk alone â€¦ â€¦ â€¦
I hope you remember me every time you see a feather,
Just to remember â€¦I got the better
