For your love I'd give anything for your time stars above and if I ever get you I'll never let you go Don't deny, you have seen me before realize, look me in the eye just a while I got love 'n I won't hide it (???) now when I finally found it Hey you hey you where did she come from to supermarket parking yard (???) hey you hey you what's going on while I turn my head away she had gone the other way away, oh there she walks again I have to be her boyfriend hey you, it's true, baby there I stood when I looked her in the eye she gave me her sweet sweet smile
For your love I'd give anything
for your time stars above

and if I ever get you
I'll never let you go
Don't deny, you have seen me before
just a while
I got love 'n I won't hide it
now when I finally found it I've seen you many times before for each time you mean more I'd like to be always yours so it's up to you please take me home with you For your love I'd give anything
for your time stars above
and if I ever get you
I'll never let you go
You, you're the sweetest thing for you I'd give anything if you're a dream
then let me sleep forever Until I get you...
I'll be dreaming of you every night and all of my time
