Fixed with life you are living in your own scars Knocking yourself down
with your own lies Please don't bring me down

Because
I don't want to be in your society where lies are in charge
And I will never be a part of your society
where pain is in our eyes

Persuade others with a wrapped up speach and deceiving yourself to be able to reach But I don't wanna hear it any more No I will never listen even though you scream I will never flow with society's stream some of us has fallen but you'll never reach me

Because
I don't want to be in your society
where lies are in charge
And I will
never be apart of your society

living in your own scars
with your own lies
Please don't bring me down

Because
where lies are in charge
And I will

Because

I don't want to be in your society
where lies are in charge
And I will
