Someone told someone and someone told you
But they really wouldn't hurt you, not much
But since everyone tells the story
With his own little personal touch

Do nothing till you hear from me
Pay no attention to what's said
Why people tear the seams
Of anyone's dreams is over my head

Do nothing till you hear from me
At least consider our romance
If you should take the words
Of others you've heard, I haven't a chance

True, I've been seen with someone new
But does that mean that I've been untrue?
When we're apart, the words in my heart
Reveal how I feel about you

Some kiss may cloud my memories
And other arms may hold a thrill, yes yes yes
But please do nothing till you hear it from me
And you never will

Some kiss may cloud my memory
And other arms may hold a thrill, hold that thrill
But please do nothing till you hear it from me
And you never will
So please do nothing till you hear it from me
And you never will
