"Never Gonna Fall"

Don't matter if I told you this before
But I'll never fall again
Never gonna fall again

Don't plan to give up, everything to change
But I'll never fall again
Never gonna fall again

Whipped my branches thick, thick enough to convict
But I'll never fall again
Never gonna fall again

And if your gone
I know it's for your health
And if you stay
I expect it's for the same
Keep it honest
Something to protect
Built for ages
Very deep and strange

I know I've told you this before
But I'll never fall again
Never gonna fall again

Won't ever ask your shoulder burden's weight
Never gonna fall again
Never gonna fall again
Never gonna fall again
Never gonna fall again
Never gonna fall
