[Phonte] It's up on that trip to the valley you always wanted to take Y'knahmsaying? Yeah Oh yeah {*15X*} [Carlitta Durand] + (Phonte) It's the restless change and the roads we make Through this lovely space and the heart's evades Spending so much time tryna find the lines between love and hate If the time is right, it will be inside and love won't fade (What are we searching for?) Tell me what we're hurting for (What are we really looking for in our lives?) (My heart is yearning for) On fire babe, I'm burning for (So if you're willing baby, give it a try) [Chorus 2X: Carlitta Durand] I'll love you to the letter and I can't promise you forever But baby, long as we're together It'll be better this time around [Carlitta Durand] I'll never do you wrong [Repeat 2X: Phonte] + (Carlitta Durand) It's like oh yeah, you say oh yeah {*4X*} (It'll be better this time around) (I'll never do you wrong) [Phonte] Uh, no need to kirk out Stop the foolishness, I'm coolest since moms was doing jerk out Make a lil' love to tonight, but now it seems just like you get mad, come home and want to bird out The first thing that come to your mind is like primal scream therapy I'm the one you use to get the hurt out But baby let me testify Just cause you exercise don't mean that we gon' work out Hey, I came not to rain on your message because I feel your pain in your effort And you know me, I'm the same OG, real close to saying eff it Love won't remain till you change all your methods I mean, change all your disrespecting that make you move in on the tenth and yell "peace" on the eleventh Make you wanna sing like Eddy King on a record Put this on your ear, let it bang for a second Ride out! [Chorus 2X: Carlitta Durand] [Phonte] Everybody ride Cuba After Market [Carlitta Durand] I'll never do you wrong {*4X*}
