Here's to the bitter end
The thick and the thin
Through the loss and the win
When the journey is alone

I can live on the edge
I can do what I want
I can say to you baby you know I don't give a fuck
Cause I know

This can't be bought can't be sold
My heart is made of gold
This can't be bought can't be sold
My heart is made of gold

They can tie up my legs
Keep me stuck in the dark
Suture my mouth
So I can't talk, Hello

Whatever the price
That they're willing to pay
They can take it all
But they can't take it from me
Cause I know

This can't be bought can't be sold
My heart is made of gold
This can't be bought can't be sold
My heart is made of gold
