

Walls of Jericho

"I the Hunter"

I am a monster inside a man the outer shell is my better half methods of madness have no end when you hunt the dead an urge, strong urge i can't resist and they will only set me free to run again i am a wolf a killer alone i stand all you see is my mask of sanity, a true mistery.
the wolf will strike again my dreams will prey on you. i promise this will set you free close your eyes and wait for it the warm crimson freedom will wash you clean your body will rot beneath the concrete
all you see is my mask of sanity a true mistery
