Everyone considered him the coward of the county
He'd never stood one single time to prove the county
wrong
His mama named him Tommy, but folks just called him yellow
Something always told me they were reading Tommy wrong.

He was only ten years old when his daddy died in prison
I looked after Tommy, 'cause he was my brother's son
I still recall the final words my brother said to Tommy "Son my life is over, but yours has just begun".

CHORUS:

"Promise me son not to do the things I've done Walk away from trouble if you can
It won't mean you're weak if you turn the other cheek
I hope you're old enough to understand Son, you don't have to fight to be a man".

There's someone for everyone, and Tommy's love was Becky
In her arms he didn't have to prove he was a man
One day while he was working, the Gatlin boys came calling
They took turns at Becky (there was three of them).

Tommy opened up the door, and saw Becky crying
The torn dress, the shattered look was more than he could stand
He reached above the fireplace, and took down his daddy's picture
As his tears fell on his daddy's face, he heard this words again.

REPEAT CHORUS

The Gatlin boys just laughed at him when he walked into the bar room

One of them got up and met him half way cross the floor
When Tommy turned around they said "Hey look old yellow's leaving"
But you could've heard a pin drop when Tommy stopped and locked the door.

Twenty years of crawling were bottled up inside him
He would hold nothing back --he let'em have it all
When Tommy left the bar room, not a Gatlin boy was standing
He said this ones for Becky, as he watched the last one fall (now hear him say)

"I promised you dad not to do the things you've done
I walk away from trouble when I can Now please don't think I'm weak I didn't turn the other cheek
And papa I should hope you understand Sometimes you gotta fight when you're a man".

Everyone considered him the coward of the county.
