breathe the air that i've got for you, watch the clock as i look into your eyes, feels like i'm pushing on the sand, if you would be so kind as to take my hand.

but it's all a game for you honey,
it's all a game,
and if i roll my dice in your way,
i hope it comes rolling back through,
yeah i hope it comes rolling back soon.

i jarged my hand knocking on your door, and sole my feet as my heart spills on the floor, smile a while and sing your song, cause i know i'll of got you in my mind, yes i've got you in my mind, and you aint leaving any time.

but it's all a game for you honey,
it's all a game,
and if i roll my dice in your way,
i hope it comes rolling back through,
yeah i hope it comes rolling back soon.
