"Exist"

Occupy your quiet corner,
as everybody does,
who does not wish
to raise their voice,
or lacks the courage necessary;
nervous,in a sea of faces;
endless,ever-changing,
simply waiting
for someone
to recognise the fact that you exist.
So occupy your quiet corner,
as everybody does,

who does not wish
to raise their voice,
or lacks the courage necessary;
nervous,in a sea of shit;
endless,ever-changing,
simply waiting
for someone
