CITY NEUROTIC

Rolling on a rell, coiling on a wheel time to turn the machine on, feel the heat, the mind blows on mayday makes my day, dancing in the rain rain that melts my dirty skin, spreads around the medicin all the common lies make me realize I'm a man of the megatown, a look that kill with a megafrown you're "radical" and nice, touch me if I please Peeping on the noisy drift, I'm back from my dialy shift

I'm on my way, I'm making it fast you might be first, but never the last this city's calling all night long

Panic in the street, drifting in the heat alone without you, thinking about you city neurotic, measuring the beat is it tonight you, the concrete victim of the day?
Struggling like a man, doing all I can to fight against the neurosis, creating gradual dismiss filthy like a dog, digging in a rock nails in blood I want to reach some time in malibu beach this fascinating world still acts so absurd start to cover for tonight all the parts that I can hide

I'm on my way, my heart's beating fast days without nights, nerves could never last this city's calling all night long

Panic in the street, drifting in the heat alone without
beat is it tonight you... is it tonight you...? panic in the street, drifting in the heat alone without you, singing about you you city neurotic, taste my bitter sweet I am tonight you, your concrete victim of the day!
