Penetrating through your skin to the flesh
I force myself through before it's too late
These thoughts are weird, too selfish and ugly
But increase my life power, gotta prove that I'm something
Child again
I feel I'm bored again
Wave the flag
I feel so free again
(Once) I tried to escape the rain of my pain
I was really insane, didn't love what I created
But then lightning struck me and I awoke to a new morning
I returned to the sand
I returned to the cradle
Curiosity - please, make a man of me!
Hold the line - let's make this music free
Curiosity - get a hold of me!
Wave the flag to keep this music free!
It's so useless to flee the cradle
As a child you used to know what you were able An'now you just follow your empty shadow
Better hold the line
Better hold the line of life!
Curiosity - please make a man of me!
Hold the line - let's keep this music free
With our curiosity!
Wave the flag
Hold the line...
