You think youre smart when you dance so hot, but you wink your eyes too fast Ooh, how hard wed try to manage this night could never last Take this moment and slide into freedom an play this game of love Same old story, its easy to guess - youll get my body torn Power is so attractive, yeah, it makes me use my gun Ooh, how hard you try to manage this game cant make you a nun
Be my boss and use your freedom and pay for your sins later
Lets get down to business and shut these fucki lights, yeah
Youd better turn the lights on
Youd better turn the lights on
Youd better turn the lights on Move on honey, its so dark in here
Youd better turn the lights on Youd better turn the lights on (deep in your head)
Youd better turn the lights on Move on masses, move your asses on!
Why do you try to act like someone who knows everything
In fact youre just a lost little girl who tries to save her own skin
Why dontcha try to convince me, try to really turn me on Instead of cheating and telling me lies show that youre a real one!
Youd better turn the lights on
Youd better turn the lights on
Youd better turn the lights on Move on honey, cant you turn me on Youd better turn the ligts on Youd better turn the ligts on (deep in your head)
Youd better turn the ligts on Move your asses, move on masses!
Hey, you creepies, turn the lights!
Youd better turn the lights on...
Youd better turn the lights on

Youd better turn the lights on Why do we treat each other like it was the end of the human race

Youd better turn the lights on
Youd better turn the lights on
Youd better turn the lights on Move on masses, move your asses!
