She's got a sensitive touch

She knows about the life all too much

She's too soft for this human kind

She wants to scream out her painful mind

Kill your head! Free your mind!

Kill your head!

They say her lifestyle is not suitable

She should stay cool in room no.1

They say stay free, but in unconcios state

That's the easiest way to look the hate

Kill your head! Free your mind!

(and she belives that she is not real)

Chorus 1:

Let's quit the ball (the right)

Let's quit the ball (to leave!)

Let's quit the ball (escape!)

Let's quit the ball, quit it all

(She is thinking and finds herself bleeding apart

She's mad about the life,

but too seriously she takes it all

but there should be a way

there's always a way

the sun is today

the sun is today!!!)

She stands in the doorway with open hands blood runs warm on the floor where she stands

She says she can't take it

She has no means

She can't help it, how much she ever screams

Let's quit the ball (I have)

Let's quit the ball (the right)

Let's quit the ball (to leave)

Let's quit the ball, quit the ball

Let's quit the ball (but there is...)

Let's quit the ball (a way)

Let's quit the ball (don't quit)

There is still a world for you

GO!
