Don't even try to measure my overraised blood pressure

No reason to find a good enough explanation

How dare you to say that animals are your only friends!

'Cause they would still respect the other members of their own species

[Chorus:]

Alive, in a life without lies

I will give up living with tears in my eyes

Alive, in a life without lies

I will give up wearing this fatal disguise

They don't see around them, they walk like numb, so blind

They don't even really feed your kids, they milk you, starving from behind

Humanity is overrated, it's built for people like you

Who just have too much and nothing, only this twisted screen to live through

Full of this song... full of this song!

[Chorus]

[Rap:]

You are reflecting your lonely world through this black negative lence

Don't you know you've been cheated by your own mind's black prince

Your mom and dad never did have any time, overloaded by society

Who stupidly taught them: The only thing is big money and property

But like with eating, you live what you say, you still always reap what you sow

And now you're just repeating your dearly beloved father's faults

Now we do have a problem for sure: We're not gonna take it no more!

Just makes me angry to see you did not have the guts to save your bloody score

[Chorus]
