"Drinking With Mr Big Bang"

You'd better see thing as they are there's nothing that they represent i'll tell you what Mr Big Bang bang, bang, bang someone else

oh, oh, oh
go, go, go!

little merit in a faith of ease a narrow path over the edge not only do you tire and sweat eventually you're charged for that why or why?

i keep asking

some would die
to stay alive

too many whys, too many ohs wise is a man with his mind closed Mr Big Bang could you refrain from drinking vodka through a straw and you know what? what?

you're a bit too tough.
You don't know the answer that's why you say i'm tough, nobody knows the answer, anyway so why should the man close his mind?

because it's his heart
that should be open,
it's his heart that should be open
