"Transcendental High"

White light has come on me
it's come so peacefully and suddenly as it might be i felt it filled me up worked me up to the top that was the precious time i've risen transcendetal high

white light
white light
high, high higher and higher i saw the word around clearly i droveaway my misery

i'm waiting eagerly till it is back with me so as the day has come i ll rise again, i will rise high
