Rolling Stones - No use in Crying

Ain't no use in crying
Stay away from me
Standing in the kitchen
Looking way out cross the fields
You see a face in the window
It not real, it not real
Ain't no use in crying
Stay away from me
Ain't no use
Standing at the station
Gazing down the track
There ain't no train coming baby
I ain't never, never coming back
Standing in the balcony
Looking way towards cross the sea
If you see your ship come a sailing
It not me, it not me
It's not me
Stay away from me
Hey you
Ain't no use, ain't no use
Stay away from me
Ain't no use in crying
Stay away from me
