What you say girl,
you see what is wrong
You must be joking, you was led alone

But the butler the baker, the laughing cavalier Will tell me now, who's been sleeping here

I want to know

Tell me baby, who's been sleeping here

What you say girl,
who'd you see that night
I was doing, doing something right Oh the soldier, the sailor then there's the three muskateers They'll now tell me now,
who's been sleeping here
Did I ever tell you I want to know Hey baby, who's been sleeping here
Don't you look like, like a goldilocks
There must be somewhere, somewhere you can stop Yes there's the noseless old newsboy the old british brigadier But you'll tell me now,
who's been sleeping here
Who's been eating, eating off my plate
Who will tell me, who'll investigate There's the seargeants the soldiers the cruel old grenadiers
But they'll tell me, now, who's been sleeping here
'Cause I want to know who's been sleeping right here Was it your mummy, your daddy,
who's been sleeping here?
Was it your auntie, your uncle,
who's been sleeping here?
Was it your boyfriend, your girlfriend,

who's been sleeping here?
